Mark 12:28-31

One of the teachers of the law came and heard them debating. Noticing that Jesus had given them a good answer, he asked him, “Of all the commandments, which is the most important?”

“The most important one,” answered Jesus, “is this: ‘Hear, O Israel: The Lord our God, the Lord is one. Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind and with all your strength.’ The second is this: ‘Love your neighbor as yourself.’ There is no commandment greater than these.”

Results of the August 27 Discussion Group Meeting

Gena Wools volunteered to lead the connection group. Gena will coordinate meeting times with a focus on connecting with members as well as visitors.

Bruce Pierce will head up an outreach group and will follow-up with those who visit our church and are seeking God. This group will involve prayer specifically for workers/those seeking. It will also include efforts toward visitors and pantry folks.

If you are interested in participating in either of the new groups, please contact Bruce or Gena. Many hands make light work.
