Do not let any unwholesome talk come out of your mouths, but only what is helpful for building others up according to their needs, that it may benefit those who listen. And do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God, with whom you were sealed for the day of redemption. Get rid of all bitterness, rage and anger, brawling and slander, along with every form of malice. Be kind and compassionate to one another, forgiving each other, just as in Christ God forgave you. Be imitators of God, therefore, as dearly loved children and live a life of love, just as Christ loved us and gave himself up for us as a fragrant offering and sacrifice to God. Ephesians 4:29—5:2

Mercy and Forgiveness

III. The Context of the Unforgiving Servant of Matthew 18

What was Jesus teaching before this parable?

Matthew 18:10—14; Matthew 18:15—17

IV. Our Forgiveness of Each Other

How are we commanded to forgive each other, what is at stake?
