“Learning to Love” Jim Conn
Closing Comments, Bill Werner
Closing Prayer, Scott Clements

For none of us lives to himself alone and none of us dies to himself alone. If we live, we live to the Lord; and if we die, we die to the Lord. So, whether we live or die, we belong to the Lord. For this very reason, Christ died and returned to life so that he might be the Lord of both the dead and the living. You, then, why do you judge your brother? Or why do you look down on your brother?

For we will all stand before God's judgment seat. It is written: “ ‘As surely as I live,’ says the Lord, ‘every knee will bow before me; every tongue will confess to God.’ ” So then, each of us will give an account of himself to God. Therefore let us stop passing judgment on one another. Instead, make up your mind not to put any stumbling block or obstacle in your brother's way. Romans 14:7—13

Family Happenings

A Family Meeting is scheduled for Sunday December 7 INSTEAD OF DINNER ON THE GROUNDS. It will take approximately 45 minutes and plans and budget for 2015 will be discussed. Child care will be available. Please plan to stay for this important family event. Thank you..

Happy 100th Birthday,
Beth Cotton!

In celebration, Beth is throwing a party!
Please stay and enjoy a birthday lunch
after service today.

Maggie Shepherd loves fellowship, but some of the physical parts of it, like hugging, cause her arm and shoulder injuries a lot of pain. Please love her and greet her warmly, but try to avoid hugging her. It's hard, true, because she is so loveable, but she really needs this. Thanks.
