James 5:7-12

7 Be patient, then, brothers and sisters, until the Lord's coming. See how the farmer waits for the land to yield its valuable crop, patiently waiting for the autumn and spring rains. 8 You too, be patient and stand firm, because the Lord's coming is near. 9 Don't grumble against one another, brothers and sisters, or you will be judged. The Judge is standing at the door! 10 Brothers and sisters, as an example of patience in the face of suffering, take the prophets who spoke in the name of the Lord. 11 As you know, we count as blessed those who have persevered. You have heard of Job's perseverance and have seen what the Lord finally brought about. The Lord is full of compassion and mercy. 12 Above all, my brothers and sisters, do not swear—not by heaven or by earth or by anything else. All you need to say is a simple "Yes" or "No." Otherwise you will be condemned.

As we consider the year ahead, we should examine the frequency with which we attend opportunities for worship and Bible study.

Scripture teaches that congregations of the Lord's people must meet on the first day of the week to worship the Lord (Acts 20:7; 1 Cor. 16:2; Heb, 10:25). The Scripture is silent concerning meeting times and duration of services. Through the centuries these matters have changed according to the needs and circumstances of the day. In a primitive agricultural setting, Sunday services might have been an all-day affair with dinner on the grounds. No Sunday or Wednesday night services. Today we have Bible classes prior to Sunday morning worship services. Sunday evening services seem to have originated as a result of more and more people having jobs that required them to work on Sunday morning. Our Wednesday evening Bible classes used to be mid-week prayer meetings.

Other than meeting with the church on the Lord's Day for the purpose of engaging in worship, the scheduled meetings of the church fall into the area of expediency. As our shepherds, the elders are responsible to feed the flock over which they exercise oversight (1 Pet. 5:1-3; Acts 20:28). . . Our participation in these opportunities not only demonstrates love and devotion for God and one another; it also shows respect for God's leadership in the church.

GREAT FELLOWSHIP with a
Joyful Church Family
